APRIL 2015

A Note from the President...

CAA members and guests enjoyed a wonderful presentation by Lorraine Bubar, a spectacular papercut artist, at the general meeting on March 27th. I apologize for the microphone difficulties and lighting conditions we experienced and want you to know that the skylight issue is being investigated. In any case, Lorraine's presentation surpassed those issues as her work was absolutely captivating.

With only three months remaining in our fiscal year, we have no lack of exciting events! This month features a much-anticipated visit to the studio and gallery of Clare Graham. Our "Artist's Choice" exhibit is coming up in May (details in this newsletter). And in June, Christel Thompson will be conducting a don't-miss workshop titled "Painting With Sunlight" (details to come).

Things are rolling along very well and I'm pleased that our members can enjoy and benefit from the volunteer work of CAA's wonderful board. We do, however, have a few empty spots on the board. Every one of us have been doing double-duty as we fill in for those vacant positions. Imagine what we could do with a full board! Read about the positions below and contact me or anyone on the board for further information.

ADDITIONAL TAKE-IN (as space allows)

Tuesday . May 26, 2015 . 10-12

RECEPTION AND AWARDS

Saturday . May 30, 2015 . 5-7 pm

It's your turn, artists! This is an opportunity to show those artworks you love but that never really fit the parameters of a themed exhibit. CAA members may submit a maximum of two artworks created within the past three years. Entries will be accepted until the capacity for this exhibit is met (approximately 60 pieces).

This exhibit is not juried for selection, but our guest curator Kristine Schomaker will jury for awards.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The amended CAA Bylaws were approved by the membership in January. They will be published on our website and a PDF version can be accessed here.

Do you enjoy discovering collage and assemblage artists and can't wait to tell your friends about them? Do you have mad graphics skills you'd like to share and promote? Are you a writer who appreciates a good read? Would you like to help spread the word about CAA exhibits and events? If so, you and the CAA board are a good match! Please consider volunteering for Programs, Graphics, Newsletter or Publicity. Talk to any board member for details. Thank you!
